

AUDITION

For

The Laramie Project Ten Years Later

Including stories from Nepali LGBTIQ

One World Theatre in collaboration with Blue Diamond Society is inviting interested members of the LGBTIQ community and aspiring actors to audition for roles in the upcoming production of the Laramie Project Ten Years later. This play deals with issues of homophobia, hate crimes and how communities react, but also changes in attitude and legislation towards LGBTIQ. It also incorporates stories from Nepali LGBTIQ members.

Date:

4th of April at 1pm at BDS

Place: BDS central offices, Dhumbarahi Marga, Dhumbarahi Height

Required:

- Understanding of English, though some segments will be in Nepali
- Be available for the rehearsals, which are scheduled from mid-April till 16th of May, and the 13 performances from 19th till 28th of May.
- Some experience of acting is preferential but not essential

Offered:

- support and guidance to increase acting skills
- Increased visibility
- stipend according to the importance of the roles

People wanting to apply for costumes, make-up, set design etc. are also welcome!

The script can be downloaded from here: <http://ow.ly/KzSL309V1X7>

For more information, contact Bruno Deceukelier bruno.owt@gmail.com or 980 8163876

